PRESENTER · PROFESSOR DANIEL DEUTSCHLANDER.

“We will resume our study of Mark’s gospel, this year with Mark 9. It is a truly magnificent chapter of the gospel, especially in the context of Jesus’ promise of and call to the cross made so dramatically in Mark 8. It is a chapter rich in encouragement for the pastor as he begins Lent looking at the Transfiguration at its beginning down to the horror and glory of the cross and the empty tomb at the end. Few chapters have more of doctrine, of warning, of comfort and encouragement than Mark 9. It will be quite an accomplishment if we can get through the whole chapter in the time allowed!”
