The purpose of The Association of WELS Chaplains (TAWC): Today the opportunities to serve as chaplains ranges from full-time and part-time paid staff to volunteers and lay people, serving the military, those confined in hospitals, those living in penal institutions, nursing homes and other residential institutions as well as fire departments and police departments. TAWC offers the following:

1. An opportunity for fellowship
2. A means of sharing in the professional experience of others and those in related fields
3. A program for the advancement of knowledge in the field of chaplaincy
4. A means to promote the growth and recognition of spiritual care in our facilities and agencies
5. A means to encourage dialogue with other institutions served by chaplains and to include them in our conferences and education programs

Please complete the registration form if you are planning to attend in person or if you would like to watch later and receive the 4 CE hours offered through Martin Luther College. Deadline for registering and payment is January 10, 2019.
